Pasadena Academy:

Rumors of Polar Bears

By Jonathon Dorf

In the near future, a ragtag band of teens struggle for survival in the face of a climate induced catastrophe. Despite dire circumstances that leave them scavenging for food and water, they find fun where they can, frolicking in the "party pool" and forgetting themselves just long enough to be teenagers. But that all changes when they're forced to flee their makeshift home.

COPPER RIDGE ACADEMY, BAIE VERTE, NL

Elegiac by: Ridge Troupers

SYNOPSIS:

Elegiac present the thoughts, fears, and hopes of war weary women. The characters portrayed in Elegiac did not go to war; war came to them. It stole loved ones, broke hearts and tore families apart. From the Trojan to modern day wars and all the conflicts in-between, shared emotional responses and a collective longing for the future unite these women. Anguish, a constant thread that links the women's thoughts and stories, accentuates a timeless and universal presence of the tragic effects of war.

Samantha Stuckless Modern War, Chorus 1
Chelsea Greenham Ancient Warfare, Chorus 4
Jenna Stacey The Great War, chorus 3
Shealyn Foster World War II, Chorus 2

CREW: Ellis Stuckless

DIRECTOR: MaryLou Stuckless

 PRESENTS
 "Taboo" by Kimberly Burke

Hamilton High is just like your high school, only stranger. Syl and Jenny, the new kids on campus, quickly discover it's a place fraught with unspoken rules -- words you can't say, colors you can't wear, places you can't go -- and a powerful student group called the Security Committee that enforces them. But operating just under the radar of the Committee is the Taboo Society, a covert group that questions their unmitigated power. When Syl and Jenny come into conflict with the Security Committee, they must decide where their loyalties lie.
